Red Shenanigans Bringing End to Camp David Spirit

WASHINGTON (AP)—All that remains of the spirit of Camp David now is a tattered ghost—too weak and discredited to influence this year's summit negotiations.

A few months ago 1960 was regarded by many people as likely to be a hopeful year for a start on settling East-West issues. That idea was fostered by the talks between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at Camp David last September.

The evidence now is that the Western powers and the Soviet Union are heading into a period of strain and tension as they try to wring concessions from each other.

Ex-Recorder To Try Again

Mrs. MacNeil Is GOP Candidate

Mrs. Hilda Burns MacNeil, Route 2, today announced she will seek the Republican nomination for Pickaway County Recorder in the May 3 primary.

Mrs. MacNeil is the first GOP candidate to declare for Recorder.

er. Only Democratic candidate is incumbent, Mrs. Florence T. Campbell, 478 N. Court St., running for her seventh consecutive term.

Ironically, Mrs. Campbell was first elected to the Recorder's office in 1936, defeating Mrs. MacNeil, who served one term in 1935 and 1936. Since assuming office, Mrs. Campbell has never been defeated and has faced opposition only once.

Mrs. MacNeil was born in Chillicothe, but moved here shortly after. She is a graduate of Circleville High School and since that time has been employed as a bookkeeper.

She was associated with several business firms before starting work with the local Ralston Purina Mill, where she remained nine years.

Presently, Mrs. MacNeil is associated with the Kochheiser Hardware Co., 113 W. Main St. She is in her ninth year there as bookkeeper.

She is a life-long member of St. Philip's Episcopal Church. Mrs. MacNeil is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and County Historical Society.

She formerly belonged to the Circleville Business and Professional Women's Club.

Third Polio Shots Slated

The Circleville Department of Health will administer third round polio shots tomorrow and next Saturday at the Health Board office in the City Building.

All children under 18-years-of-age, who received first and second Salk Vaccine shots in May and June, are urged to receive their third and final shots.

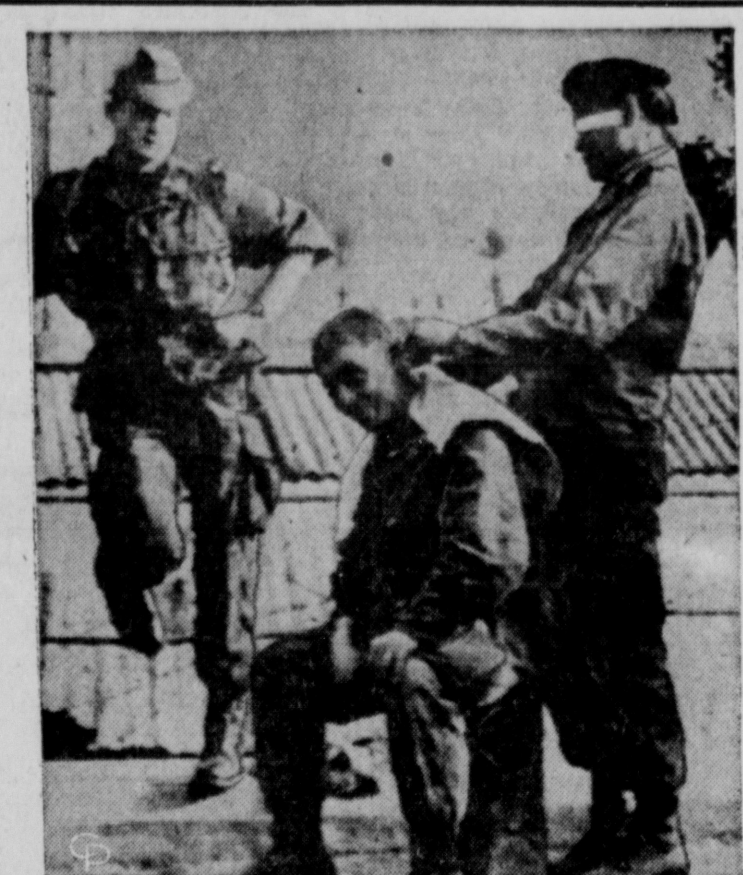

The local Health Board administered first and second round shots to more than 300 city school system children last May and June.

Authorities state that in order for the Salk vaccine to be effective, three shots must be administered, one, two and six months apart.

The Health Board is administering these polio shots free-of-charge to all children who haven't received polio shots.

Dover Mayor Awaits Trial For Accepting Vice Bribes

DOVER, Ohio (AP)—Clifford C. Froelich, 61, who earlier this month started his third term as Republican mayor of this community of 10,000, was free on $5,000 bond today awaiting arraignment next Wednesday morning on a grand jury indictment charging him with accepting bribes.

Secret indictments against Froelich and five men accused of paying the $1,500 in bribes between February, 1958, and May, 1959, were returned Thursday. Three of the five were fined $100 and costs by Froelich in Mayor's Court last fall after their arrest in a gambling raid.

Froelich told a newsman Thursday it was "actually a relief" when the warrant was served on him in his office at City Hall. He said he and his family had been receiving telephone calls "at all hours of the day and night until we were nearly crazy" and that the caller had been "someone I know and who implicated me in this."

"It is an unfortunate mess," the mayor said in his interview. "I was in the middle, but when the truth is known, it will show I didn't get anything out of this." "I will be crucified," Froelich added, but he maintained he had "never done anything of any nature to bring shame on this office or on my name, as long as I have been mayor of this city."

Whether he would be permitted to remain mayor pending arraignment on charges that could mean 1-to-10-year penitentiary sentences on conviction was a problem other city officials had under discussion.

Council President LeMoine Luthy said he didn't know what the procedure was and no special Council session was scheduled, but he had scheduled conferences with City Solicitor John L. Woodward today.

The Tuscarawas County Grand Jury acted on information gathered by the state attorney general's office in cooperation with County Prosecutor James S. Patrick. The Dover Police Department never was suspect, Patrick said, and never was called to help.

Patrick said each of the six men indicted had been charged with seven counts. Their arraignment was put off Thursday by

Volcano Levels Hawaii Village

KAPOHO VILLAGE, Hawaii (AP)—Kilauea volcano, after destroying a village, was spewing more lava than ever today over the ravaged countryside of this southeast Hawaiian island.

It buried most of this once-thriving village of 300 people under a flaming 20-foot thick carpet of lava Thursday. Only eight small wooden buildings stood amidst a sea of charred and still-smoldering homes and buildings.

Volcanologist Wayne Ault estimated the lava flow covered two square miles of fertile forest lands sugar cane fields, papaya fruit and coffee plantations. He said he saw no end in sight for the eruption.

MILLBROOK, Ala. (AP) — An elderly couple was killed Thursday night when a pilotless T33 jet training plane crashed into their rural farm home and set it on fire.

The victims were Mayhan Long, about 70, a farmer, and his wife, Louise, about 65. They were burned to death when the single-engine craft plunged to earth and ricocheted into their five-room frame dwelling which was destroyed by the flames.

The pilot, Lt. Col. R. H. Turnquist of Andrews Air Force Base, Md., parachuted safely from the stricken plane and landed about a mile and a half from the crash scene. He was not injured.

Kansas City Synagogue Is Bombed

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A bomb smashed 51 windows Thursday night in a new synagogue which earlier this month was marred by a painted swastika.

No one was injured by the explosion at Kehillah Israel Temple. The synagogue caretakers, Mr. and Mrs. Kapers Butler, were in their quarters in the building but the bomb didn't damage their apartment.

The explosion was heard over a two-mile radius of southeast Kansas City. It did not damage any other buildings.

Police Lt. Col. William M. Canaday said officers questioned a dozen teen-aged boys Thursday about the painting of a swastika on the temple Jan. 18.

The boys were picked up after a student at Southeast High School, near the synagogue, was found to have a Nazi uniform, complete with swastika armbands and a dagger with the initials "SS" on it. Canaday said all of the boys had similar armbands and claimed membership in the Nordic Reich Youth Party.

"We lectured them and let them go," said Canaday. "Now we're going to pick them up again."

Reds Keep Word, Family Reunited

CHICAGO (AP) —The Leonas family, reunited through the personal intervention of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, today began making up for 16 lost years.

"They feel strange but close to us," said Paulus Leonas of his two children, Regina, 20, and her brother, Tomas, 17, who arrived in Chicago Thursday from Soviet-controlled Lithuania.

It was the first time the children had seen their parents since 1944, when Leonas and his wife fled Lithuania in front of the advancing Soviet army. The children had since lived with their grandparents.

There was little time for getting reacquainted Thursday night at the Leonas home, where scores of friends gathered to celebrate until nearly midnight.

There were gifts for Tomas and Regina from friends and from strangers. "So many I couldn't count them," said the elated father.

Lithuanian songs were sung with solemnity and vigor. Lithuanian delicacies were served. There were champagne toasts, speeches, telephone calls, telegrams, laughter, tears.

Moscow had rejected all pleas by Leonas to get his children to the United States until he met Khrushchev in Des Moines last summer during the Soviet Premier's tour of the U.S. Khrushchev instructed an aide to arrange the reunion. But Leonas, who is

Space Agency Deplores Cut In Its Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — American space efforts after a year or two may feel the pinch of an administration cutback of 132 million dollars in the new budget, space officials say.

Disclosure of the slash in requested funds was made Thursday by officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration under questioning by the House Space Committee.

Richard E. Horner, an associate administrator of NASA, testified the reduced budget meant that work in advanced technology and supporting research was being curtailed, construction of new facilities was being put off and staff expansion postponed.

But Horner and Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator of NASA, insisted that the cut in funds would not affect such major projects as the man-in-space program and the gradually accelerating program of space probes set for the next few years.

Asked if NASA could make more progress if it had more money, Dryden replied: "Not in the next year or two. But it could affect things down the road."

He reported NASA requested 957 million dollars. When the budget was drawn it was given 802 million dollars. In addition, however, it is receiving 23 million dollars in a carryover payment from the current fiscal year, making 825 million dollars actually available to it.

Accused Sniper Pleads Innocent

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Floyd E. Hargrove pleaded innocent to a first-degree murder charge at his arraignment here Thursday in the Christmas Eve sniper slaying of Charles R. Clark of nearby Mentor.

Hargrove's attorney, Louis A. Turi Jr., also entered a written plea of innocent by reason of insanity.

Turi said after the hearing that the insanity plea in no way was an indirect admission that Hargrove, a 35-year-old truck driver, had done the shooting.

Judge W. S. Slocum, who presided at the arraignment in Lake County Common Pleas Court, said arrangements would be made soon to send Hargrove to Lima State Hospital for a 30-day psychiatric examination.

French Rebels Control City

DeGaulle's Top Aides Pull Out of Capital

ALGIERS (AP)—French insurgents virtually took over Algiers today in their battle to keep Algeria French.

The Moslem rebel leadership, fighting for independence, mustered its forces for a showdown.

In between the two contending forces, President Charles de Gaulle strove to make his prestige felt and regain control of a situation that threatens his government and its tenuous hold on this strategic North African area.

The rebel government-in-exile called via Radio Tunis for Moslems in the 500,000-man French army to desert to the nationalist guerrilla forces. It urged the nine million Moslem civilians, wooed by both De Gaulle and his rightist French foes, to sit tight for the present.

At the same time the national command, pursuing its five-year war for independence from France, ordered all rebel army units to remain vigilant. "In case there is need to protect the civil population of Algiers, or in case there is an attack by the insurgents."

But the insurgents were untested masters in Algiers, the capital, with the departure of De Gaulle's two key men in Algeria for a countryside command post to get away from the immediate pressure of the uprising.

The representatives are Delegate General Paul Delouvrier, the civil administrator, and Gen. Maurice Challe, the military commander in chief. They were first reported to be at Blida, 25 miles southwest of the city. Today word circulated that they had set up headquarters at a French air base near Ragaia, five miles closer to Algiers.

An official of the City Council announced over Radio Algiers that "the people" had occupied City Hall.

Instruments taped to his body have provided a constant check on his stamina.

The 6-foot-2 airman from Bovey, Minn., can stand erect in the capsule by poking his head through a trapdoor in the top. He has remained strapped in the pilot's ejection seat inside most of the time, however. Concentrated foods have provided him with nourishment.

A few months ago 1960 was regarded by many people as likely to be a hopeful year for a start on settling East-West issues. That idea was fostered by the

The evidence now is that the Western powers and the Soviet Union are heading into a period of strain and tension as they try to wring concessions from each other.

Since the Western powers have trouble agreeing among themselves on when and how they should stand firm against Soviet pressures, the strain is sure to be much worse for them.

The Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting provided a peak of amiability only a few months after Soviet threats against West Berlin had created a serious danger of East-West conflict. The peak was quickly scaled, then quickly lost to sight.

A whole series of incidents has provided evidence that the forthcoming East-West negotiations are more likely to be grim and dangerous than to be relaxed and productive of agreement.

The latest came two days ago with a breakdown here in U.S.-Soviet negotiations for a settlement of the Soviet Union's 15-year-old lend-lease debt.

The renewal of talks on lend-lease after a lapse of seven years was agreed on at Camp David. But Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov demanded on the first day that the United States agree to remove trade restrictions on the Soviets as part of any lend-lease deal. U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen said this was impossible.

The two sides never changed from those positions and finally on Wednesday Bohlen broke off the talks, saying they served no further purpose.

Though the issue was not vital, the lessons which diplomats may draw from it are important.

In the first place, through four sessions, Bohlen and Menshikov never succeeded in bridging the negotiating gap between them. They were always at cross purposes.

Teays Valley Bond Issue Millage Rate Set at 3.4

Teays Valley's bond issue for $1,900,000 to construct a new high school has been set at 3.4 mills, Pickaway County Auditor Mrs. Marvyn H. Rhoades announced today.

This millage rate is identical with the one required in the same bond issue which was defeated in the election last November.

The 1960 valuation for the district is $41,684,507. This valuation is $862,786 more than last year's valuation of $40,821,721.

The auditor said although the valuation has increased, the millage rate will remain the same for two reasons. Instead of expecting to sell the bond issue for 4 1/2 percent as anticipated last fall, interest has risen and present estimates call for 4 1/2 percent interest necessary for sale.

THE SECOND reason is that another half-year's interest must be added on the 20-year issue because of selling the bonds in mid-year, if the issue passes. The Teays Valley Board of Education held five special meetings in early January—two nights at Ashville High School, one night at Scioto High School and one night at Walnut High School.

The public was invited to these meetings to discuss the future planning of Teays Valley School problems.

Each person attending was given a "public opinion questionnaire" on which they voted their problems confronting the board at this time.

Most all phases of the school problems were explained and discussed at length, in order that the interested public could become better acquainted with the different possibilities in school construction and the needs of the school program as a whole.

A special meeting was called by the board. Together with the nine-member advisory council, the opinions of the public, as voted in the public meetings, were studied and discussed.

No charges have been filed pending an investigation, Montgomery County officials said.

The badly mangled body of William Elter, 66, of Dayton, was found along a street Thursday.

James E. Woodward, 52, contacted authorities and told them he was driving home a man he believes was Elter when the car became stuck in the mud. Elter got out to push.

The car was freed, Woodward related, but he couldn't see Elter. He drove off, assuming Elter had gone, Woodward said.

Woodward contacted the sheriff after learning of the tragedy.

Liquor Arrests Double in Year

Minors Involved In Climbing Trend

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Liquor violation arrests last year which involved minors more than doubled the 1958 figure.

Liquor Department Enforcement Chief Ivan W. Smith reported Thursday the 1959 figure was 538 compared to the 250 arrests involving minors in 1958.

In all, 1959 was a busy year for the liquor agents—reduced in number—as they rounded up more violators and obtained more convictions than in 1958. Last year's arrests totaled 1,727 with 1,433 convictions. The 1958 totals were 1,514 arrests and 1,316 convictions.

Total fines, however, dropped in 1959 to $131,513 compared to the $154,131 in the previous year.

Smith said the problem of drinking by minors was one of the division's most important responsibilities. A policy adopted last September has eased the problem, he added.

The policy required an arrest in each instance where an offense involved a minor. In a few cases, Smith said, minors were arrested and turned over to their parents or juvenile authorities without being charged.

"We feel that holding minors responsible for their conduct together with the tavern-keeper has gone far to minimize the problem," he commented.

Smith added that the relative level of liquor law enforcement can be measured by the number of complaints his department receives. The 1959 total was two-thirds of the total for the previous year, he said.

One other total that went up for 1959, Smith's report noted, was that of stills confiscated. Last year agents got 39 stills compared to 38 in 1958. Eighteen of the 1959 total were found in Lawrence County, five in Gallia County, three each in Cuyahoga and Lucas counties, two in Scioto County and one each in eight other counties.

3 Cases Handled In Muny Court

Disposition was reached on three cases in Circleville Municipal Court today.

Walter R. Thompson, 62, Columbus, was cited by the State Highway Patrol for driving while under the influence of intoxicants. He was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

William J. Kline, 22, Wharton, was fined $40 and costs for speeding at 90 miles per hour.

Melvin Apple, 22, Charleston, W. Va., forfeited a $16.50 bond for speeding at 70 miles per hour.

The two speeders were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Scioto Flood District Case Review Asked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Franklin County commissioners have asked the Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District Court to reconsider a vote dissolving the district.

The commissioners say the action should be taken so a smaller, more workable district might be formed.

Earlier, Mayor Ralston Westlake had made the same recommendation in a letter to Common Pleas Judge Myron B. Gessaman, presiding judge of the 17-county court.

He said flood control problems "can best be accomplished through the agency of the conservancy district; perhaps a smaller district within the Scioto River watershed would be more feasible in coping with this problem."

On Dec. 29, 1958, the 17 judges voted 12-5 to dissolve the district because nothing had been accomplished since its formation in 1934. At present four suits are pending before the 10th District Court of Appeals to halt the dissolution order.

Iron-tonian Faces Murder Accusation

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Chester Daniels, 35, of Rt. 1, Ironton, is in Lawrence County jail charged with first-degree murder.

Daniels was arraigned Thursday night in Wednesday night's fatal shooting of his brother-in-law Curtis Delong, 45, also of Rt. 1, Ironton. Daniels asked for a continuance. Bond was set at $50,000. A hearing will be set later by County Court.

Sheriff Carl E. Rose said there was no apparent reason for the killing. Delong was hit at close range by a shotgun blast. The victim was the father of three children.

Delong's wife, Carol, 36, suffered head lacerations when struck by Daniels, Rose said. She is recovering at home.

Firemen Extinguish Blaze In Kitchen

Algeria remain forever French, declared through a spokesman: "We will fight until victory."

The insurgents feel the government's policy of self-determination will fail and ultimately result in independence for the predominantly Moslem land.

The government feels President Charles de Gaulle's moderate policy represents the only hope for ending the five-year-old Moslem rebellion and the best hope of preserving the French position in Algeria.

This was the gist of Delegate-General Paul Delouvrier's plea to the insurgents—you can't settle the Algerian question without the help of the Moslems, and the Moslems trust De Gaulle.

This common bond—the passionate desire for a French Algeria—which unites insurgents and government loyalists has resulted in such odd things as these:

Government officials refer to the insurgents as patriots.

Paratroopers watch idly as the insurgents reinforce the stronghold the troops may be asked to storm.

Both sides fly the Tricolor. Troops and insurgents chat amiably while pointing guns at each other.

Tradition Is Tempered by Tragedy

WESTPORT, Wash. (AP)—Tradition was tempered with tragedy for a fishing boat and two of its three crewmen on the storm-tossed Pacific Ocean off the southwest Washington coast Thursday night.

The fishermen stayed in dangerous, turbulent waters to aid four Coast Guardsmen in a disabled patrol boat. The fishing boat sank. Two of its crewmen vanished into the churning sea.

The drama began when the fishing vessel Barbara Lee called for help to get through huge swells at the narrow entrance to Grays Harbor. All day, winds up to 55 miles an hour had raked the coast.

The Coast Guard sent the 52-foot patrol boat Invincible to guide the fishing boat across the bar. It was a familiar procedure; the Grays Harbor Bar is treacherous for small craft at all times.

Suddenly, a monstrous wave knocked the Invincible bottom-side up. The boat slowly righted, but its engines were dead. One of the four men aboard took a bad cut.

The 30-foot Barbara Lee stood by in the rain and wind. It threw a line aboard the Invincible. The line broke. It tried to attach another.

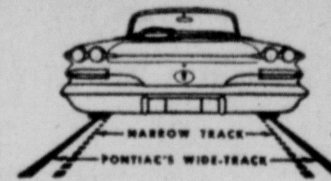

Then a mountain of water engulfed the Barbara Lee.

Is City Surplus Too Large?

The City of Circleville is solvent. The General Fund balance at the end of 1959 was $27,038.42.

This balance however does not show the true state of the city's treasury. It doesn't contain a sum of $14,089 in tax distributions which have been received since the end of the year, which normally would have been received in December.

That makes a General Fund balance of about $41,127, a testimony to the economy of city operations during 1959. It also raises the question of whether or not the taxpayers are being offered enough services.

It is certainly commendable that Council has so handled public funds that money was not thrown away for every scheme presented to the lawmakers. It shows good business judgment on the part of the solons.

However, city business is not exactly like commercial business. There is no reason to show a "profit".

Ideally, every dollar of tax money collected should be spent so that the books come out even at the end of the year. The real task in city financing is not to show a balance at the end of the year, but to make sure every penny is spent efficiently and for proper services to taxpayers.

It is probable that Circleville can be rated as just above average in efficiency of operations. Taxpayers here very likely get a little more for their money than taxpayers in the average city this size. There probably are some inefficiencies, too.

We do not advocate wild expenditure of public funds.

We are not for plush surroundings for city officials and employees, new cars for department heads every year, purchase of too much equipment and supplies.

We do believe that the taxpayers want an improvement in services and facilities. Refurnishing of City Hall is needed badly. More permanent policemen are needed. The Fire Department could use more modern equipment. Streets need more work. Street signs should be erected. High Street Cemetery should be cleaned and maintained. Ted Lewis Park could stand many improvements. A recreation program is lacking here.

Frills we don't need. Essentials we should demand.

A year ago the balance in the General Fund was $40,064. This year it was virtually the same. That means the city operated within its income during 1959—very commendable—but held about $40,000 of taxpayers money unused during the year.

Kissing Is Now a Lost Art

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Kissing has become a lost art in America. It began to decline the year we turned 40 and has plunged downhill rapidly ever since.

Every man's kissing history is roughly the same. It begins as an ordeal, gradually becomes a pleasure and a joy, and winds up as a form of feminine insult.

The ordeal time is when you are an infant. Then you are at the mercy of every loving, moist-mouthed aunt.

Kissing isn't much better when you first start school. Big girls in kindergarten develop a mania for chasing smaller boys, throwing them on the ground and kissing them. The whole business seems pretty silly to the boy.

But by the time a fellow gets into high school he develops a sudden interest in the matter. He discovers kissing is not only bearable, it can become a form of mutual fun.

Through college and up to his 40th birthday a fellow enjoys kissing as a manly art—particularly when strange girls at cocktail parties come up and buss him unexpectedly—because this makes his wife so jealous.

But by the time he is 45 the situation has changed dramatically.

He overhears his wife whispering to some sweet young thing at a party: "Why don't you go up and surprise my husband with a kiss? The poor thing. He doesn't have much fun anymore."

Even worse are the wives of friends who in the old days used to like to lure you into the pantry at neighborhood parties for a bit of innocent necking. After 45 they become lips that pass in the night.

As you step up to kiss them, fondly remembering the days of yore, they turn at the last moment and give you a quick absent-minded peck on the cheek.

That is the worst insult of all to a middle-aged man—to be kissed on the cheek by another man's middle-aged wife.

Here you are certainly entitled to revenge.

If she is smaller than you, stand on tiptoe so that she kisses you on your Adam's apple instead of your cheek.

But no matter what you do, you might as well face up to it: Kissing has become a lost art in America—at least as far as you can determine.

Ah, well, why mourn? After all, as every man over 45 knows only too well, the world is being taken over by the amateurs, in every field.

Many Teachers Are Dedicated

By George Sokolsky

The Grand Street Boys' Association is an organization consisting mostly of those who come up from what, in their childhood, was the principal slum of New York, the breeding place for gangsters, gamblers, judges, musicians, successful business men, professors of universities and pickpockets. All were more or less underprivileged—or something that is now called that. The dividing line between the good and the wicked was none too sharp.

The head of that Association is Judge Jonah Goldstein who ran the game room in the Educational Alliance to pay his way through college and law school. I have known him for about half a century and the only change in the man is that he now eats more substantial food. We were none of us rich in those days but happier than Gamble Benedict who will inherit a large fortune some day, less the inheritance tax.

So Goldstein and the Grand Street Boys' Association have come up with an idea. When we were boys down there in the East Side, where many of us lived in cold water flats and had only gas-light to read by, there were dedicated teachers who were able to cope with the boys and girls of various nationalities, religions and dialects of English. Some of those teachers are green in our memories and are still beloved by us, although the decades have passed.

So out of gratitude and to encourage teachers to know that they are not just monitors of boys and girls but that they are respected as dedicated human beings devoted to their charges, the Grand Street Boys set up a fund to give an incentive gift to dedicated teachers. We all knew such men and women back in out school days on the East Side of New York. Few of us, for instance, had English as our home language but it was in the schools that kindly men and women drilled us to know our native tongue and many of us have earned our livings because of our knowledge of our native language.

The gift is not too large, only $500, but considering the inadequate pay of teachers, it helps along. Ten teachers received the $500 gift this year and 90 more received only a scroll.

I quote from one citation, that to Frank Alweis of James Monroe High School, to indicate what is meant by dedication:

"By your superiors, by Barnard College and the Ford Foundation, your teaching has been characterized as vital, dynamic and stimulating, marked by sound scholarship, noble character and high professional ideals. With zeal and devotion you have inspired able students to a high degree of creative achievement, culminating in scholarships awarded to them by our best colleges. At the same time you have not neglected the slow learners and those beset with emotional problems. Under the sponsorship of Columbia University, you have trained underachievers in better learning habits."

"In addition to your daily classroom chores, you have voluntarily devoted many hours to the advancement of your pupils, by arriving early, staying late, and often sacrificing part of your lunch period. Despite this, you have found the time to publish a history text book, revise the official syllabus, and write 'A World History'..."

This is, of course, dedication. It is service beyond the call of duty. In another citation to Mrs. Rebecca Kaufman, kindergarten teacher, it is said:

"Beyond the classroom you have served your school as Nature Curator, Coordinator of the Flower Show, Director of Arbor Day Exercises, Assembly Pianist, Manager of Music Festivals, Supervisor of Milk Distribution, Chairman of the Hobby Show and Organizer of exhibits and lectures. You have also taken part in panel discussions on Mental Hygiene and Curriculum Revision, given demonstration lessons, trained young teachers, lectured to parent groups and written articles for the Nature - Garder Guide."

We hear and read so much these days about how inadequate teachers are; how their vacations are too long; and how many of them hold more than one job. What Judge Goldstein and the Grand Street Boys' Association have set out to prove, by selecting 100 teachers a year, is that there are today profoundly dedicated teachers who serve their pupils well and whose influence upon the lives of those who come within their orbit will always be ennobling. It is a task worthwhile and might be emulated by other communities.

NBC Opposes Any Regulation

Federal Agency Gets Sarnoff's Views

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert W. Sarnoff, chairman of the National Broadcasting Co. has told the Federal Communications Commission it should not attempt a Solomon role in relation to broadcast programs.

"In a free society such as ours, the public would not be served by imposing federal regulation on the program process of broadcasting any more than the public would be served by imposing regulations on how the press fills its columns," Sarnoff said.

He testified at FCC hearings on possible new government controls over radio and TV in an inquiry stemming from disclosures of quiz show fixing, payola payments to disc jockeys and possible abuses in broadcast advertising.

In connection with his appearance, NBC submitted a formal legal opinion from its attorneys, the New York firm of Cahill, Gordon, Reinbel & Ohl, asserting that broadcasting programs "may not be censored" by the government.

The opinion, similar to other opinions previously given the commission by industry lawyers, stated:

"It is, of course, clear beyond any doubt that radio and television, like all other media of expression, are fully protected by the First Amendment against any abridgment of free speech by the federal government or by any governmental agency."

In reference to the "wrong doing" which prompted the hearings, Sarnoff told the commission NBC has taken firm steps "going far beyond quiz shows, to identify and eliminate any unethical or borderline practices that may have developed during the years in which a new art and a new industry have mushroomed around us."

Sinus Trouble, Its Causes

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

This is the time of the year for colds and stuffed noses. But before you reach for all those nose drops, sprays, inhalants, salves, oils and antiseptics you have lying about the house to help keep nasal passages open, let me give you a few words of advice.

Occasional use of such preparations might still be all right. But promiscuous use can often do much damage. It could, for example, lead to sinus trouble.

Infections of the nose can travel rapidly to the sinuses.

The sinuses, you understand, are the air spaces in the bones of the head and face. Small openings connect these hollow spaces with the nose. And the lining of the nose, or mucous membrane, is continuous with the lining of the sinuses.

Frequent use of strong nasal preparations may injure this mucous membrane and bring on sinus trouble. So might a cold, influenza, or even violent blowing of the nose.

A stuffy nose, of course, usually is caused by a cold. On the other hand, it might also be a symptom of sinusitis.

The sinuses may be closed by inflammation of the nasal passages. This interferes with drainage and traps air in the sinus cavity.

The air spaces most likely to become infected are those between and behind the eyes, above the eyes and in the cheek bones below the eyes.

When a sinus cavity is closed for any length of time the air it contains is absorbed and a vacuum is created. This can cause severe pain.

This pain might be relieved by applying heat, with a hot water bottle, hot compresses or a heating pad, to the affected area. Heat, however, will not cure the infection itself. Your doctor is the only person who can help you with that.

Symptoms of sinusitis, naturally, vary from case to case. But there are some general warning signals with which I think you should be familiar.

For example, in the morning, there usually is a headache or pain over the area infected. Late in the afternoon, this pain will ease up. The forehead may be tender under pressure and there may be pain in the cheek, upper teeth or at other spots in the head.

The swollen membrane and lack of adequate drainage will make the nasal passages dry and clogged. Maybe the sense of smell will be partially lost.

The nose may discharge pus or cause a dripping into the throat. Perhaps the cheeks, eyelids or forehead will swell. There may be a cough, fever and a general feeling of ache and fatigue.

Any of these symptoms might indicate sinus trouble. Better check with your doctor as soon as you notice even one of them.

Is City Surplus Too Large?

The City of Circleville is solvent. The General Fund balance at the end of 1959 was $27,038.42.

This balance however does not show the true state of the city's treasury. It doesn't contain a sum of $14,089 in tax distributions which have been received since the end of the year, which normally would have been received in December.

That makes a General Fund balance of about $41,127, a testimony to the economy of city operations during 1959. It also raises the question of whether or not the taxpayers are being offered enough services.

It is certainly commendable that Council has so handled public funds that money was not thrown away for every scheme presented to the lawmakers. It shows good business judgment on the part of the solons.

However, city business is not exactly like commercial business. There is no reason to show a "profit".

Ideally, every dollar of tax money collected should be spent so that the books come out even at the end of the year. The real task in city financing is not to show a balance at the end of the year, but to make sure every penny is spent efficiently and for proper services to taxpayers.

It is probable that Circleville can be rated as just above average in efficiency of operations. Taxpayers here very likely get a little more for their money than taxpayers in the average city this size. There probably are some inefficiencies, too.

We do not advocate wild expenditure of public funds.

We are not for plush surroundings for city officials and employees, new cars for department heads every year, purchase of too much equipment and supplies.

We do believe that the taxpayers want an improvement in services and facilities. Refurbishing of City Hall is needed badly. More permanent policemen are needed. The Fire Department could use more modern equipment. Streets need more work. Street signs should be erected. High Street Cemetery should be cleaned and maintained. Ted Lewis Park could stand many improvements. A recreation program is lacking here.

Frills we don't need. Essentials we should demand.

A year ago the balance in the General Fund was $40,064. This year it was virtually the same. That means the city operated within its income during 1959—very commendable—but held about $40,000 of taxpayers money unused during the year.

Kissing Is Now a Lost Art

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Kissing has become a lost art in America.

It began to decline the year we turned 40 and has plunged downhill rapidly ever since.

Every man's kissing history is roughly the same. It begins as an ordeal, gradually becomes a pleasure and a joy, and winds up as a form of feminine insult.

The ordeal time is when you are an infant. Then you are at the mercy of every loving, moist-mouthed aunt.

Kissing isn't much better when you first start school. Big girls in kindergarten develop a mania for chasing smaller boys, throwing them on the ground and kissing them. The whole business seems pretty silly to the boy.

Eighth Grade Pupils Get Opportunity To Make Decisions on Future, Prepare for High School

This is the eighth in a series of 12 articles explaining the objectives of the Pickaway County School System. Through these articles it is hoped that parents of school children will better understand the educational program set up by the county school system and the problems encountered.

By Robert Seward
County General Supervisor

Our eighth grade youngsters, like our seventh grade pupils, are in the transition period between childhood and young adulthood. These boys and girls need to feel secure both at home and at school.

They need to feel that they are loved and wanted. If these needs are not met, a child may become maladjusted and may develop a belligerent or a withdrawing form of behavior.

The eighth grade terminates the elementary school program. During the elementary school years the children are under close supervision, have many of their decisions made for them and have a prescribed curriculum.

When our eighth grade students enter high school they are given more freedom, provided with more opportunities to make their own decisions, and are confronted with school curriculum.

TO PROVIDE for a smooth and effective transition by our students, from the eighth grade to high school, our schools need a well-organized guidance program, under the supervision of a trained guidance person.

The purpose of the guidance program is to help each student make school adjustments and to help each student develop a proper background for a future vocation, for which he is best suited.

In order to meet these aims, the guidance counselor has to understand each student. This is accomplished by developing a cumulative record on each child which includes such information as:

Health record, home and family background, previous scholastic record, scholastic ability, expressed and measured interests, extra curricular activities, vocational interests, work experience, hobbies, special abilities, special handicaps, school attendance, personal and school adjustment problems and other pertinent information.

This cumulative record is started on each child when he enters school and the data is supplied by all school personnel, through an organized testing program, through personal interviews with students and parents, through observations and through other guidance techniques.

Once the guidance counselor has the necessary information to understand the student, his next step is to help the student better understand himself. This is accomplished by personal interviews between the guidance counselor and the student.

WHEN A feeling of mutual understanding is developed and the student better understands himself and his potentialities, he can develop, with the help of the counselor, his high school curriculum schedule.

The counselor does not represent authority nor is he associated with punishment. Students can feel free to go to him with any of their adjustment problems, whether the problems are personal, social, scholastic or vocational in nature.

The organized guidance program also helps in the transition from the eighth grade to the ninth grade, by providing group guidance.

Provided for in group guidance are such topics as: getting acquainted with and using the library, understanding school rules and regulations, learning how to make better school social adjustments.

Justments, exploring various vocation areas, learning personal development and many other topics.

At the present time, many of our schools are attempting to carry on an organized guidance program but are hindered by the lack of trained guidance personnel and by an insufficient amount of time, by the assigned teacher, to work on guidance.

Currently, our teachers assigned guidance duties are full time teachers provided with a few free periods a week to work on guidance. When our new district high schools come into being, guidance counselors can be employed to develop organized guidance programs in compliance with the state standards.

WITH ASSISTANCE from the National Defense Education Act of 1958 the guidance program can be added without much additional costs.

The Ohio Elementary School Standards, as prescribed by the State Board of Education, state that Ohio history, geography and civics is to be taught in the seventh or eighth grade and that a year's course in United States history is required for promotion from the eighth grade.

These subject areas are included in our eighth grade social studies program. The Ohio history, geography and civics program provides for units on geography of Ohio, discovery and exploration of Ohio, settling and organizing Ohio, significant events in the development of Ohio, progress after the Civil War, great Ohioans and Ohio civics.

The United States history program includes units on the development and fight for independence from England, building a new nation, growth and development of the United States, expansion and the war between the states, economic development after 1865, the influence of new Americans, United States becomes a world power and problems of modern America.

The arithmetic program provides for a continuation of the study of fractions. A review of decimals and percentage is provided for with an extension of how percentage is used in business and in banking.

Students are taught how to use formulas for finding areas and volumes of the various geometric figures and solids. An introduction of such topics as ratio and proportion, square root, metric system, equations and construction are included in the eighth grade arithmetic program.

INCLUDED IN the eighth grade language arts program are written communication, oral communication and literature. The literature program is an extension of the seventh grade program and provides for poetry, short stories, book length novels, plays and biographies.

The written communication program calls for a continued study of and an application of capitalization, punctuation, parts of speech, sentences, phrases and clauses, paragraphs, spelling and use of the dictionary. The oral communication program develops the techniques of conversation, speaking, manners and parliamentary procedure.

Science, health and safety are included in the curriculum with units on matter, energy, machines, heavenly bodies, climate, the earth, plants, animals, needs of the human body, diseases and how to prevent them, accidents and first aid.

Organized physical education and music programs are provided for our eighth grade students and some of our schools include home economics and industrial arts.

You, as a parent, can help your eighth grade child by having frequent discussions with him about what high school subjects he should plan for and what possible vocational areas he might be interested in.

In order to do this intelligently, you must first, understand your child's capabilities and interests and you must know what subjects are available for him to select.

IT IS FOOLISH to encourage a child to take algebra if he hasn't the scholastic aptitude to master or force him into a commercial curriculum if he has the aptitude and interest for a science program.

Many a youth's dream has been shattered because he was faultily guided into an area for which he did not have the necessary aptitude or which he did not fully understand.

You can probably better understand your child's scholastic aptitudes and areas of interest if you arrange an interview with the teacher assigned to guidance or his classroom teacher.

Your high school principal can advise you as to what subjects are available in the curriculum and what knowledge is included under each subject title.

It is important that you prevent the situation from developing where your child progresses through high school, taking subjects in a hit and miss fashion, and finishes high school without any pattern to his educational background.

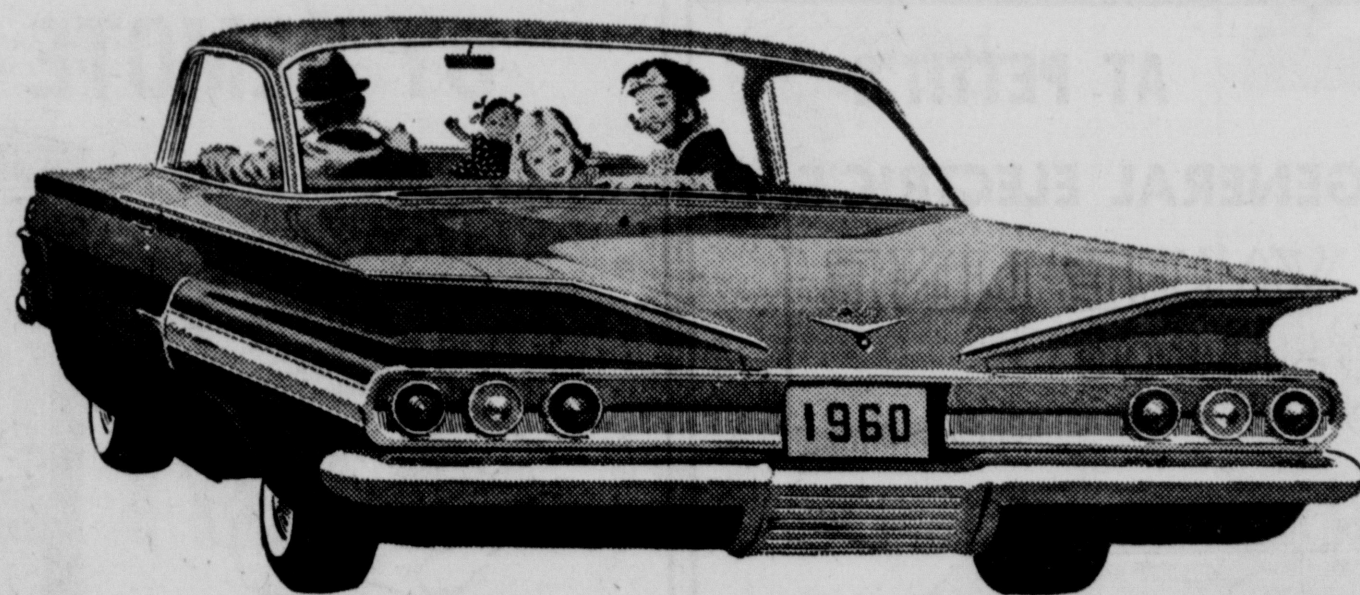

Now is the time to lay the frame work for your child's high school education in terms of a future general vocational area. Most eighth graders are not ready to decide upon their specific vocation but they can be helped to select a general area such as commercial, vocational and college prep.

You need to be realistic and accept your child as he is and work with him from there, considering also, the amount of financial help you will be able to give him in his future endeavor.

Next week's article will deal with the problems facing the freshman teacher and student and how parents can best help their children.

Chevrolet speaks of the Sixties like no other car—with a broad accent on spaciousness, stirring new concepts in styling and strong emphasis on spirit and thrift.

Step inside this superlative '60 and look at the worlds of room around you: head room, hip room, shoulder-squaring room. Note how Chevrolet's engineers have further flattened and narrowed the transmission tunnel to give the middle man more foot room. Chevrolet's greater roominess is inside where you want it—not outside in useless body overhang.

You'll find economy teamed with performance in a new standard V8, engineered to deliver up to 10% more miles for every gallon, or the strapping Hi-Thrift 6.

And riding comfort in the new one is a never-ending treat, thanks to Full Coil spring suspension. There are also thicker, newly designed body mounts that filter noise and vibration to the vanishing point, more rigid frame and many other engineering advances.

But you'll have to drive the Sixty sizzler yourself—that's the clincher.

Why not see your Chevrolet dealer now—for a drive and the happy details on Chevy's new lower prices.

Area Students On Honor Roll

Eight students from Pickaway County have been named to the honor roll for the Fall Quarter at the Ohio State University.

Achieving high academic averages from Circleville were Florence K. and Joanna M. Goldschmidt, 901 Atwater Ave.; Raymond A. McFee, Route 1; and Carol D. Mason, 302 Watt St.

Catholic Church Plans Catholic, Protestant Session

An information class will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday at St. Joseph's Church, 134 W. Mound St.

This class is designed to better inform Catholics in their religion and also to bring about a better understanding between Catholics and non-Catholics.

This is a very good chance for non-Catholics to become acquainted with the teachings of the Catholic Church as there are many misunderstandings.

A lot is read in the newspapers currently about such topics as Population Explosion, Birth Control, A Catholic President and many others. Again this would be an excellent opportunity to find out how the Catholic Church stands on such topics and the reasons for this stand. This program is open to the public and there is no obligation.

President Eisenhower needed no passport in his travels as President to foreign lands. But, members of his family had to fill out the usual forms for passports to accompany him.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

His Brother's Wife's Keeper

DEAR ABBY: We are having a big mixup in our family. A cousin of ours recently died and left a young widow. A brother of the dead man is doing double duty and has been acting like a husband to this widow. He is married. He says the Bible says it is all right. Where in the Bible does it okay such goings on?

DOUBTER
DEAR DOUBTER: Your cousin is probably referring to Deuteronomy 25:5 and following verses wherein it states that a woman who has been widowed without offspring may seek relations with her husband's brother. Your cousin is using this passage to suit his own purpose. He must surely know that this Deuteronomic law has fallen out of use because of the moral and legal changes in our civilization.

DEAR ABBY: After our company Christmas party there was a lot of talk because the husbands and wives of the employees were not invited.

I was on the Christmas Party Planning Committee and I think the public should know that all the employees in our company were asked for a secret ballot to decide whether the husbands and wives of the employees should be included. It was almost 100 per cent in favor of the husbands and wives staying home.

ON THE COMMITTEE
DEAR ABBY: Last summer the plant where my husband works

gave their annual picnic and it was one of those "no wives and no husbands" deals. I wish you could have heard the stories they told about it afterwards. They gave prizes for "mixed wrestling matches". (Men and women.) Some men fell in the lake with their clothes on and my own dear husband came home at two the next morning stiffer than a billy-goat.

So when the plant announced their annual Christmas party, also without husbands and wives, I wouldn't let my husband go. He's still mad at me. Was I wrong?

MRS. C.
DEAR MRS. C.: Not under the circumstances. Don't worry, he'll get over it in time to butter you up for the annual picnic.

"What's your problem?" For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dig 'O' Near Scoring Mark

Cincy Ace Needs 33 Points for Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson comes back tonight to try again to break the three-year scoring record for major college basketball players set by Furman's Frank Selvy in 1954.

This time, All-America Oscar needs but to match his season average of 36.3 to be sure of cracking the mark, left at 2,538 points when Selvy wound up his 78-game varsity career. With 2,506 points in 73 games, Oscar needs 33 to set a new three-year mark.

The Citadel, with a 10-4 record and a six-game winning streak, furnishes the Cincinnati opposition tonight, but the Bearcats and Big O will have the advantage of the home court.

With at least 11 games left for the Bearcats, Robertson's a cinch to break both marks if he stays healthy.

While the accounts were busy figuring all that out, 13th-ranked Toledo, St. Johns (NY) and Memphis State were scoring important victories Thursday night.

Toledo, leading the Mid-American Conference, ran its record to 12-2 with a comeback 48-46 overtime victory over touring Virginia Tech.

St. Johns' young team, starting to jell after a shaky start, ran its record to 9-5 with a 69-63 victory over Marquette at Milwaukee as Tony Jackson scored 24 points and Willie Hall 17. Memphis State, now 12-2, hit 46 per cent and out-rebounded the Crimson 43-15 in a 63-37 rout of Alabama.

VPI Fares Poorly in Ohio Tests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Virginia Tech, highly touted Southern Conference basketball co-leader suddenly badly deflated, heads for Youngstown and a duel with the Penguins tonight for a last chance to salvage a victory on its whirlwind three-games-in-three-nights tour of Ohio.

Toledo heaped further embarrassment on the Gobblers Thursday night by whipping them 48-46 in an overtime thriller. Dayton had greeted VPI the evening before with a 77-59 kayo.

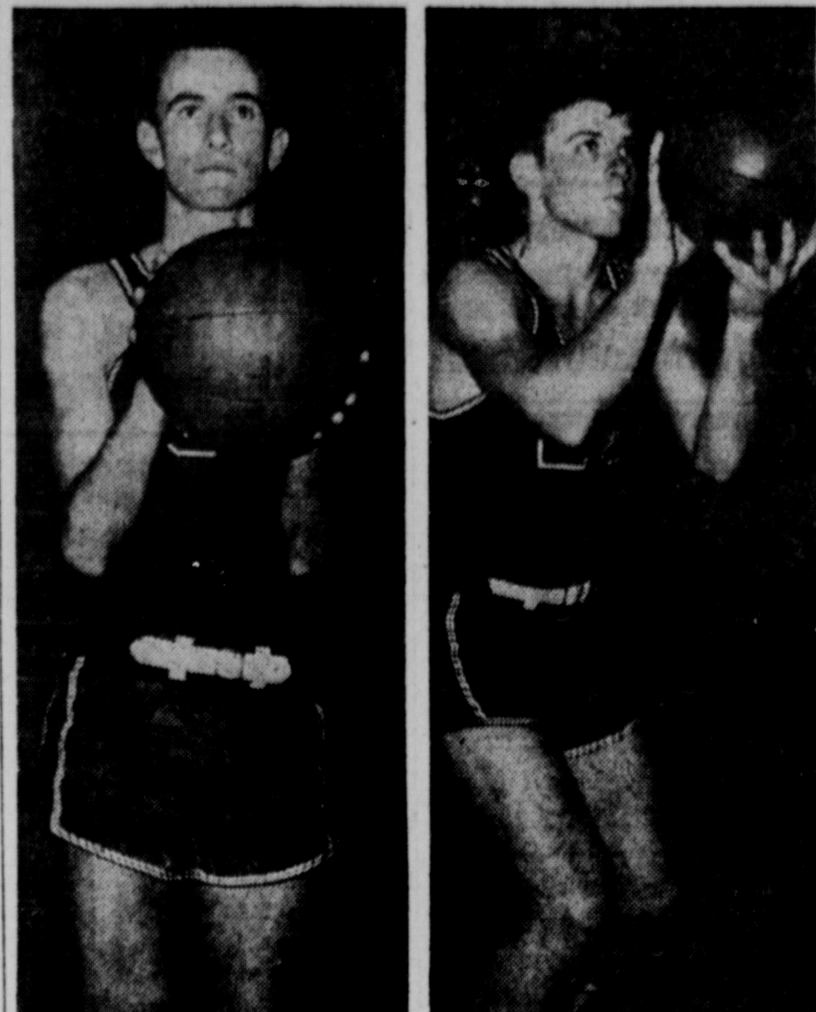

Toledo and 19th-ranked Dayton try to apply a similar double "welcome" tonight and Saturday, respectively, to another Dixie power, Wake Forest. No. 1 Cincinnati entertains The Citadel—another Southern Conference invader—in tonight's other feature.

The Bearcats could rub further salt in rebel wounds if Oscar Robertson scores 33 points and breaks the national major college three-year scoring record held by Frank Selvy of Furman—of you guessed it—the Southern Conference.

Other action involving Ohio teams Thursday included another overtime struggle and three century-plus scores.

Ferris Tech (Mich.) nipped Ohio Northern 88-84 in the extra session. Breaking 100 were Ashland, 104-94 over Wooster; Baldwin, 101-85 over Adrian (Mich.); and Malone of Canton, 109-66 over Gordon (Mass.). Jim Runyon and Larry Augler racked up 32 points apiece for Ashland.

Tigers and Lions Ready for Clash

READY FOR BIG TEST — Sam Weller (left) and Dave Hicks (right) are ready for tonight's vital encounter here with the Blue Lions of Washington C. H. Hicks, a senior, and Weller, a sophomore, have alternated in the starting lineup this season. Both are capable scorers and dependable on defense.

Tonight's the night for the Circleville Cage Tigers who are fighting desperately to hold on to their front running in the South Central Ohio League.

The Blue Lions of Washington C. H., holding second place in the SCO, come here with four straight loop wins under their belts.

The Blue Lions will have a mean look in their eye for the Tigers clipped their tail, 40-37, earlier in the season at WCH. The Fayette Countians then rebounded to win four loop games in a row.

The CHS Tigers have been riding near the league's top spot all season. A loss tonight would drop them into third place.

CIRCLEVILLE, Greenfield and Wilmington currently are jammed for first place, each with 6-2 records. Wilmington goes to Hillsboro tonight and Greenfield meets a non-league opponent.

CHS held sole possession of first place for a week, but was jolted last Friday at Wilmington to throw the SCO into a three-way knot for the second time this season.

Coach Dick Snuffer and his force know they will have to stop Washington's Pete Pfersick, a tall center who has hit stride the last few games. Other dangerous opponents are Terry Stillings, Dave Reno, Marilyn Flee and Bill Southworth, all veteran cagers.

Stillings fires mostly from outside, and is dangerous when on the mark. Reno likes to drive as do Southworth and Flee.

CHS will bank its hopes on forwards Bob Shadley, Linden Gibson and Sam Weller, center Larry Hannans and guards Jake Bailey and Dave Hicks. Front line replacements include Jim Wellington and Dick Kline, both sophomores.

In the first meeting between the two teams, Washington failed to collect a field goal as the Tigers breezed to a 11-1 lead in the first quarter. The Blue Lions have sharpened their shooting eye since that time and it is unlikely the same tragedy will strike tonight.

Ohio Ice-Fishing Prospects Poor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Natural Resources first ice-fishing bulletin of the season:

"Recent heavy rains have made the ice in Sandusky Bay and the Lake Erie island area unsafe for fishing, the Sandusky District office reports.

"Earlier in the week, it had been predicted that with continued cold weather the ice would be suitable for safe ice-fishing by this weekend. Some perch have been taken, although fishing pressure has been light.

"Now, ice fishermen will be forced to wait for more prolonged cold weather before planning a Lake Erie ice-fishing trip."

The department said it plans to issue weekly bulletins each Thursday for the remainder of the ice-fishing season.

SWO Coaches Set Football Clinic

The Southwestern Ohio Football Coaches Assn. will conduct its second annual Football Clinic February 6 at Princeton High School.

Serving on the clinic staff will be Marvin Moorhead of Upper Arlington High School, Joe Malnisur of Lima Senior High School, Pete Ankey of Kettering High School and Homer Rice of Highlands High School, Ft. Thomas, Ky.

Reservations should be in by February 1. The session will start at 8:30 a. m. and end 5 p. m.

Spartans Seek Volunteers To Joust at OSU

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—"We're not picking a traveling roster—simply issuing a call for volunteers," quipped Michigan State basketball coach Fordy Anderson.

Anderson was talking about Michigan State's Saturday date at Columbus with league-leading Ohio State.

The Buckeyes, unbeaten in four games, are threatening to make a runaway out of the Big Ten race. Defending champion Michigan State is in a three-way tie for third on a 3-2 record.

"Seriously though," said Anderson, "we think we have a chance. We intend to give it a big try."

Michigan State had almost been counted out as a contender after two straight losses. Then the Spartans surprised by overpowering favored Iowa 90-80 here last Saturday.

"That Ohio State team is one of the greatest in the nation," Anderson continued. "It has everything—height, speed, great shooting, terrific rebounding, great team strength."

Sophomore Jerry Lucas is the man to stop in the Buckeye attack. Lucas, a 6-8, 228-pounder, has been averaging better than 25 points a game.

Ohio State also has a couple of 6-6 and 6-5 regulars. Tallest man on the MSU squad is Lance Olsen at 6-4. Olsen led the team against Iowa with 35 points. Horace Walker, at 6-3, works at center for the Spartans and is the only other consistent high scorer.

Tipoff is 4:30 p.m. and the meeting will be a Big Ten "game of the week" television attraction.

Saturday Night Basketball Card Has Three Games

Cage fans will have three basketball games from which to choose tomorrow night in Pickaway County and the outlying area.

New Holland invades Scioto (3-8) with the Buffaloes rated as favorites. The Bulldogs have a single victory under their belt, while Scioto is steadily improving.

Amanda (7-5) travels to Walnut (8-4) for a re-match. The Aces won the earlier contest, 59-44. Both teams have gained in experience and this encounter should be a toss-up.

Final tilt finds Laurelville playing host to Hamden, a strong quintet Laurelville upset earlier, 67-60.

Braves Confident Of 1960 Pennant

By CHARLIE DRESSEN
Manager, Milwaukee Braves

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Milwaukee lost the pennant in a play-off last year. It's obvious that it wouldn't take too much improvement to win in 1960. I think we can do it. I am sure, though, that we have as good a chance as any of them. We have good professional, proven ball players. We also have a bunch of youngsters who will be given a chance to prove how good they are.

We need help at second base and in the bullpen. Second base, in particular, was the big problem last year. We tried to make a trade for a second baseman but the clubs we were dealing with demanded too much. Baseball men whose judgment I respect tell that Chuck Cottier is as good a defensive second baseman as anyone around today. They say, too, that he cannot hit. Well, we have something in mind for spring training and we think the hitting situation will be helped very much.

I'm going to talk to Henry Aaron and ask him what he thinks about playing second base. I know that he wants to stay in right field but I'll see what he says when I talk to him.

I also intend to give our young pitchers, such as Juan Pizarro, Joey Jay and Carl Willey every chance in the world to win regular starting jobs.

Of course, I still regard Warren Sox.

Spahn and Lew Burdette as the backbone of the pitching staff. Maybe they're not so young but they keep on winning and that's what counts.

We have a top bullpen pitcher in Don McMahon. We need another man to go with him. We think that man is on our present roster but right now I'd rather not say what I have in mind.

I'm looking for Wes Covington to come back strong after an off-season last year. A healthy Covington should make us much stronger.

And speaking of comebacks, there's no law that says Red Schoendienst can't make it. Maybe by playing him properly, by spotting him for a few days or a week at a time, we can get the most out of Red.

The rest of the infield is in good shape. Ed Mathews is the best third baseman in the league. Johnny Logan is an underrated shortstop who still hasn't hit his peak. At first, Joe Adcock and Frank Torre make a good combination.

Catching? We've got by far the best in the league in Del Crandall. He can catch every day.

Bill Bruton, a good steady ball player, is my center fielder. And Aaron? Just the best. He's the batting champion of the league. This year he'll also be the most valuable. He can be even greater than he is.

(Next: Billy urges, Boston Red Sox.)

This time, All-America Oscar needs but to match his season average of 36.3 to be sure of cracking the mark, left at 2,538 points when Selvy wound up his 78-game varsity career. With 2,506 points in 73 games, Oscar needs 33 to set a new three-year mark.

The Citadel, with a 10-4 record and a six-game winning streak, furnishes the Cincinnati opposition tonight, but the Bearcats and Big O will have the advantage of the home court.

With at least 11 games left for the Bearcats, Robertson's a cinch to break both marks if he stays healthy.

While the accountants were busy figuring all that out, 13th-ranked Toledo, St. Johns (NY) and Memphis State were scoring important victories Thursday night.

Toledo, leading the Mid-American Conference, ran its record to 12-2 with a comeback 48-46 overtime victory over touring Virginia Tech.

St. Johns' young team, starting to jell after a shaky start, ran its record to 9-5 with a 69-63 victory over Marquette at Milwaukee as Tony Jackson scored 24 points and Willie Hall 17. Memphis State, now 12-2, hit 46 per cent and out-rebounded the Crimson 43-15 in a 63-37 rout of Alabama.

VPI Fares Poorly in Ohio Tests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Virginia Tech, highly touted Southern Conference basketball co-leader suddenly badly deflated, heads for Youngstown and a duel with the Penguins tonight for a last chance to salvage a victory on its whirlwind three-games-in-three-nights tour of Ohio.

Toledo heaped further embarrassment on the Gobblers Thursday night by whipping them 48-46 in an overtime thriller. Dayton had greeted VPI the evening before with a 77-59 kayo.

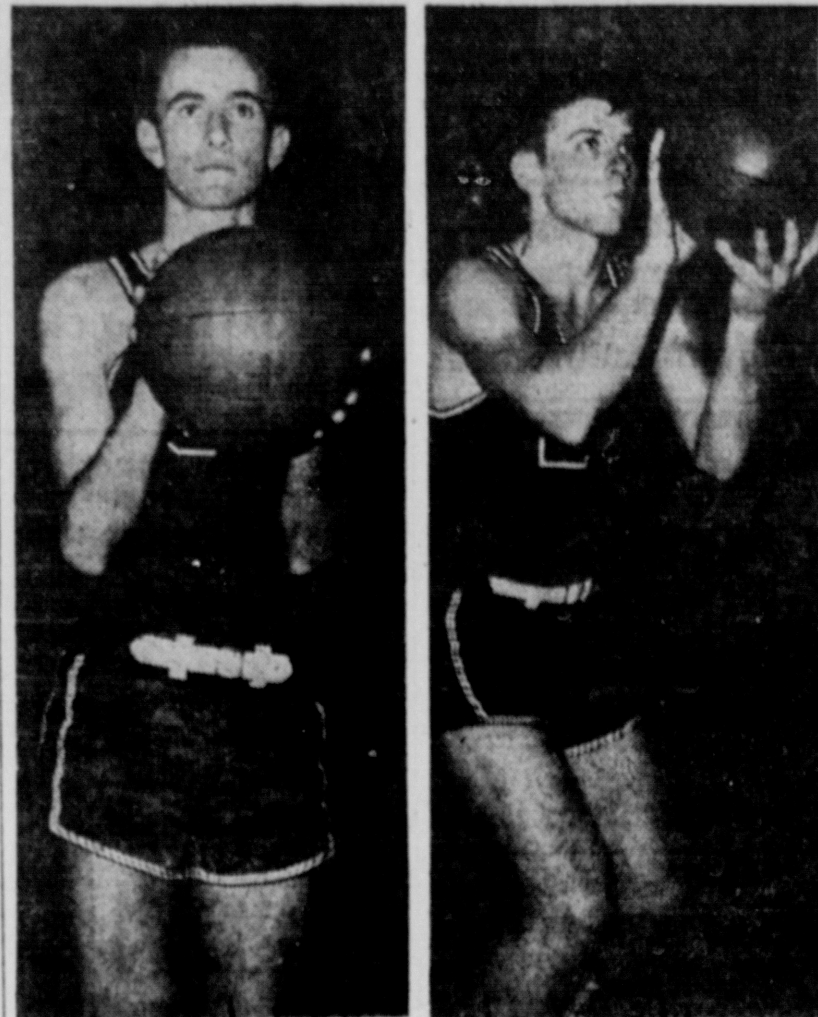

Toledo and 19th-ranked Dayton try to apply a similar double "welcome" tonight and Saturday, respectively, to another Dixie power, Wake Forest. No. 1 Cincinnati entertains The Citadel—another Southern Conference invader—in tonight's other feature.

The Bearcats could rub further salt in rebel wounds if Oscar Robertson scores 33 points and breaks the national major college three-year scoring record held by Frank Selvy of Furman of—your guessed it—the Southern Conference.

Other action involving Ohio teams Thursday included another overtime struggle and three century-plus scores.

Ferris Tech (Mich.) nipped Ohio Northern 88-84 in the extra session. Breaking 100 were Ashland, 104-94 over Wooster; Baldwin, 101-85 over Adrian (Mich.); and Malone of Canton, 109-66 over Gordon (Mass.). Jim Runyon and Larry Aulger racked up 32 points apiece for Ashland.

Tonight's the night for the Circleville Cape Tigers who are fighting desperately to hold on to their front running in the South Central Ohio League.

The Blue Lions of Washington C. H., holding second place in the SCO, come here with four straight loop wins under their belts.

The Blue Lions will have a mean look in their eye for the Tigers clipped their tail, 40-37, earlier in the season at WCH. The Fayette Countians then rebounded to win four loop games in a row.

The CHS Tigers have been riding near the league's top spot all season. A loss tonight would drop them into third place.

CIRCLEVILLE, Greenfield and Wilmington currently are jammed for first place, each with 6-2 records. Wilmington goes to Hillsboro tonight and Greenfield meets a non-league opponent.

CHS held sole possession of first place for a week, but was jolted last Friday at Wilmington to throw the SCO into a three-way knot for the second time this season.

Coach Dick Snuffer and his force know they will have to stop Washington's Pete Persick, a tall center who has hit stride the last few games. Other dangerous opponents are Terry Stillings, Dave Reno, Marilyn Flee and Bill Southworth, all veteran cagers.

Stillings fires mostly from outside, and is dangerous when on the mark. Reno likes to drive as do Southworth and Flee.

CHS held sole possession of first place for a week, but was jolted last Friday at Wilmington to throw the SCO into a three-way knot for the second time this season.

quarter. The Blue Lions have sharpened their shooting eye since that time and it is unlikely the same tragedy will strike tonight.

Ohio Ice-Fishing Prospects Poor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Natural Resources first ice-fishing bulletin of the season:

"Recent heavy rains have made the ice in Sandusky Bay and the Lake Erie island area unsafe for fishing, the Sandusky District ofice reports.

"Earlier in the week, it had been predicted that with continued cold weather the ice would be suitable for safe ice-fishing by this weekend. Some perch have been taken, although fishing pressure has been light.

"Now, ice fishermen will be forced to wait for more prolonged cold weather before planning a Lake Erie ice-fishing trip."

The department said it plans to issue weekly bulletins each Thursday for the remainder of the ice-fishing season.

Spartans Seek Volunteers To Joust at OSU

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—"We're not picking a traveling roster—simply issuing a call for volunteers," quipped Michigan State basketball coach Fordy Anderson. Anderson was talking about Michigan State's Saturday date at Columbus with league-leading Ohio State.

The Buckeyes, unbeaten in four games, are threatening to make a runaway out of the Big Ten race. Defending champion Michigan State is in a three-way tie for third on a 3-2 record.

"Seriously though," said Anderson, "we think we have a chance. We intend to give it a big try."

Michigan State had almost been counted out as a contender after two straight losses. Then the Spartans surprised by overpowering favored Iowa 90-80 here last Saturday.

"That Ohio State team is one of the greatest in the nation," Anderson continued. "It has everything—height, speed, great shooting, terrific rebounding, great team strength."

Sophomore Jerry Lucas is the man to stop in the Buckeye attack. Lucas, a 6-8, 228-pounder, has been averaging better than 25 points a game.

Ohio State also has a couple of 6-6 and 6-5 regulars.

Tallest man on the MSU squad is Lance Olsen at 6-4. Olsen led the team against Iowa with 35 points. Horace Walker, at 6-3, works at center for the Spartans and is the only other consistent high scorer.

Tipoff is 4:30 p.m. and the meeting will be a Big Ten "game of the week" television attraction.

Saturday Night Basketball Card Has Three Games

Cage fans will have three basketball games from which to choose tomorrow night in Pickaway County and the outlying area.

New Holland invades Scioto (3-8) with the Buffaloes rated as favorites. The Bulldogs have a single victory under their belt, while Scioto is steadily improving.

Amanda (7-5) travels to Walnut (8-4) for a re-match. The Aces won the earlier contest, 59-41. Both teams have gained in experience and this encounter should be a toss-up.

Final tilt finds Laurelville playing host to Hamden, a strong quintet. Laurelville upset earlier, 67-60.

Braves Confident Of 1960 Pennant

By CHARLIE DRESSEN
Manager, Milwaukee Braves

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Milwaukee lost the pennant in a play-off last year. It's obvious that it wouldn't take too much improvement to win in 1960. I think we can do it. I am sure, though, that we have as good a chance as any of them. We have good professional, proven ball players. We also have a bunch of youngsters who will be given a chance to prove how good they are.

We need help at second base and in the bullpen. Second base, in particular, was the big problem last year. We tried to make a trade for a second baseman but the clubs we were dealing with demanded too much. Baseball men whose judgment I respect tell that Chuck Cottier is as good a defensive second baseman as anyone around today. They say, too, that he cannot hit. Well, we have something in mind for spring training and we think the hitting situation will be helped very much.

I'm going to talk to Henry Aaron and ask him what he thinks about playing second base. I know that he wants to stay in right field but I'll see what he says when I talk to him.

I also intend to give our young pitchers, such as Juan Pizarro, Joey Jay and Carl Willey every chance in the world to win regular starting jobs.

Of course, I still regard Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette as the backbone of the pitching staff. Maybe they're not so young but they keep on winning and that's what counts.

We have a top bullpen pitcher in Don McMahon. We need another man to go with him. We think that man is on our present roster but right now I'd rather not say what I have in mind.

I'm looking for Wes Covington to come back strong after an off-season last year. A healthy Covington should make us much stronger.

And speaking of comebacks, there's no law that says Red Schoendienst can't make it. Maybe by playing him properly, by spotting him for a few days or a week at a time, we can get the most out of Red.

The rest of the infield is in good shape. Ed Mathews is the best third baseman in the league. Johnny Logan is an underrated shortstop who still hasn't hit his peak. At first, Joe Adcock and Frank Torre make a good combination.

Catching? We've got by far the best in the league in Del Crandall. He can catch every day.

Bill Bruton, a good steady ball player, is my center fielder. And Aaron? Just the best. He's the batting champion of the league. This year he'll also be the most valuable. He can be even greater than he is.

(Next: Billy urges, Boston Red Sox).

Top Big Ten Game To Be In Columbus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HORACE WALKER, the Big Ten's second leading scorer and best rebounder, carries much of Michigan State's hopes of upsetting Ohio State in Saturday's No. 1 conference basketball attraction.
The game at Columbus, Ohio, will be regionally televised in the afternoon and pits the Buckeyes' heralded sophomore, Jerry Lucas, against Walker, one of the Midwest's most underrated players.
Sophomores like Lucas have been winning most of the headlines this season. Walker, however, is coming into his share with such opposing coaches as Illinois' Harry Combes calling him "one of the great players" of the season.
Although only 6-3, Walker has captured 105 rebounds in five games and scored a 26.4 average. Lucas has 54 retrieves in four games. Other MSU starters are small by comparison to the Buckeyes—6-4 Lance Olson, 6-2 Dave Scott, 5-9 Dave Fahs and 6-1 Art Schwarm.

Pro Football Leagues Swap Angry Words over Franchise

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The National Football League today told the embryo American Football League to practice as well as talk harmony.
A battle of words ensued Thursday night among NFL and AFL commissioners and owners after the established league voted Dallas a franchise in 1960, and accepted Minneapolis-St. Paul for 1961.
Commissioner Joe Foss of the AFL said in Dallas that the NFL's invasion of Dallas proves the 40-year-old pro league is out to "continue their monopoly in pro football."

Tribe Fails To Increase Night Games

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland is one of two American League clubs that will not play more night games in the coming campaign than in 1959.
The 1960 American League baseball schedule, announced Thursday night in Boston by President Joe Cronin, gives Cleveland 35 night games—same as last year.
Boston, the only entry to have fewer night contests than in 1959, dropped from 24 to 19.
Over-all, there will be 29 more night contests in the AL 1960 schedule, or 293 klieg-lighted contests compared to 264 last season. Baltimore has 13 more and the defending champion Chicago White Sox have added 11.
The Indians will play 16 of their last 22 games of the season in the friendly atmosphere of the Stadium here. In addition, six of the Tribe's last nine games will be with Chicago. The season ends Oct. 2.

Sixteen of the Indians' first 22 games will be on the road.
All teams get underway April 19, the day after the traditional opener in Washington when the Senators play host to Boston. Detroit will be here for the Indians' first game and will remain for a game the following day.
The Tribe's longest steady haul comes between June 7 and July 5 when every day is filled. In that period the Indians play three exhibition games—two with the Cincinnati Reds and one with the Chicago Cubs.

The engagement with Chicago will be part of the Hall of Fame festivities at Cooperstown, N.Y., on June 27.
The dates of the All-Star games are July 11 and 13—the first at Kansas City and the second in New York.

In the second place, by insisting on an unacceptable condition the Soviets seemed to be expressing a tough attitude in the very first 1960 negotiation.

Third, by breaking off the negotiations Bohlen in effect told the Soviets that the United States was not impressed by their tough attitude.

There are other pieces of evidence which fit into the same pattern:

1. The only solid agreement made at Camp David was that which lifted the Soviet threat to West Berlin and committed Eisenhower to go to a summit conference if his allies would agree. On three occasions now Khrushchev has renewed the threat to Berlin—in a December speech in Budapest, in a January policy speech in Moscow and in a New Year's Eve talk with U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson.

2. The U.S.-British negotiations with the Soviets at Geneva for an enforceable prohibition on the testing of nuclear weapons have made no important progress for several months. The Soviet Union is still trying to negotiate the Western powers into accepting a general ban without strong enforcement machinery.

3. In the United Nations session at the end of last year Soviet spokesmen tried to force U.S. concessions on various issues by charging this country with violating the "spirit of Camp David." Their behavior left no doubt that the Soviets considered this a tool to be used in propaganda harmful to the United States.

4. The Soviet decision to set up a rocket range target area in the Central Pacific is one of the most dramatic and subtle moves the Soviets have made in missile diplomacy. Allen W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency Chief, said in a speech this week that Soviet rocket testing in the past has been conducted with the greatest possible secrecy but now: "they wish to call attention to the strength of their sinews."

3-Unit Mental Hospital Cost Tops Central Estimate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It won't be possible to build three 500-bed mental hospitals at separate sites for the same amount a centralized 1,500-bed facility in northeast Ohio would cost, the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction warns.

The department originally planned to build a Northeastern Ohio Mental Institution in the Warrensville Heights section of Cleveland. It would have had three 500-bed units, but all would have been at the same site, with central units to provide such services as administration, heat and food.

Plans were changed when Gov. Michael V. DiSalle decided after a look at institutions in eastern states that smaller, decentralized units would do the job better. Administration would be more efficient, DiSalle said, and it would be easier to draw a staff from the local area.

But Dr. Robert A. Haines, director of the mental hygiene-correction department, says the $800,000 appropriated for specifications and land purchase by the last Legislature probably won't be enough now that three sites must be acquired.

What's more, Haines said, with equipment the cost of the project may jump from 15 million dollars to between 23 and 24 million. The administrative, heat, food and other service units now will have to be constructed at each site, Haines pointed out, and each hospital will have to have its own superintendent.

For all that, Haines insists his department has no objection to DiSalle's plan, which is likely to apply to a number of other proposed mental institutions.

"Staffing is the problem," Haines said. "If you can have the staff built up, the size of the hospital doesn't matter."

The problem, he said, is a shortage of trained personnel and keen competition among states for their services.

"At least in a centralized institution you can continue to operate if there is a staff shortage by closing down some sections," Haines said, adding: "We haven't had any experience yet, so we don't know how this will work in smaller units."

State architect Carl E. Bentz, who has been looking over sites in western Cuyahoga County, eastern Lorain County, the Akron area and Warrensville Heights with members of Haines' staff, has completed his initial recommendations.

If the mental hygiene-correction department's top officials concur, Haines will discuss the sites with the governor. If everyone agrees, it will be decided which of the three to build first and what the project will consist of, and architects will draw up the plans.

The first phase of the project, five million dollars' worth of work in the two-year period beginning July 1, 1961, then will be advertised for bid.

What, Bentz was asked, happens if everyone doesn't agree?

"Then," Bentz replied, "we'll go back and look around some more."

After court proceedings, Porumbanu told newsmen:

"I must comply with much chagrin to the order of the court and I am sure she will comply with the law. But I don't think her inner feelings for me have changed, and my feelings for her will never change. I love her very much."

Justice Gold said Gamble also told him she would comply with an order issued Wednesday in Brooklyn Magistrate's Court ordering her "not to contact Andre Porumbanu in any form or manner." Her family had brought her to that court on a wayward girl charge. A hearing on the charge was set for Feb. 26.

800 in County To Get Forms

The Pickaway County Auditor's office yesterday started mailing 1960 personal property tax forms to county residents.

Approximately 800 tax forms were mailed yesterday to those residents owning classified property, such as interest bearing stocks and certificates.

Returns also were mailed to industrialists and businessmen with personal property in the form of manufacturing or business machinery.

Individuals and corporations may start paying their personal property taxes on February 15. They have until April 30 to pay their taxes without penalties being added for delinquency.

Last year personal property tax forms were not mailed until after February 20. Auditor Marvin H. Rhoades said today there will be no delays this year.

Ashville Woman To Appear On Contempt of Court Count

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court recently ordered Miss Mae Rife, Ashville, to appear before it at 10 a. m. February 6.

Miss Rife has been ordered to appear to show cause why the court shouldn't sentence her for contempt of court.

According to County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis, the Ohio Attorney General's office requested his office to subpoena Miss Rife. It is reported that the State Tax

Commissioner ordered Miss Rife to appear with her bookkeeping records for investigation. A summons was delivered her by the County Sheriff, but she ignored the summons and did not appear, according to the Tax Commission.

AFTER SEVERAL letters were written her, requesting she make an appearance, the Tax Commissioner asked the Attorney General to take action.

According to state statute, persons ignoring summons from the Tax Commission, can be proceeded against upon request of the Tax Commission to the Attorney General or the prosecutor of the county in which that person resides.

In this case, the Attorney General's office asked Prosecutor Davis to proceed against Miss Rife.

poses. In the second place, by insisting on an unacceptable condition the Soviets seemed to be expressing a tough attitude in the very first 1960 negotiation.

Third, by breaking off the negotiations Böhlen in effect told the Soviets that the United States was not impressed by their tough attitude.

There are other pieces of evidence which fit into the same pattern:

1. The only solid agreement made at Camp David was that which lifted the Soviet threat to West Berlin and committed Eisenhower to go to a summit conference if his allies would agree. On three occasions now Khrushchev has renewed the threat to Berlin—in a December speech in Budapest, in a January policy speech in Moscow and in a New Year's Eve talk with U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson.

2. The U.S.-British negotiations with the Soviets at Geneva for an enforceable prohibition on the testing of nuclear weapons have made no important progress for several months. The Soviet Union is still trying to negotiate the Western powers into accepting a general ban without strong enforcement machinery.

3. In the United Nations session at the end of last year Soviet spokesmen tried to force U.S. concessions on various issues by charging this country with violating the "spirit of Camp David." Their behavior left no doubt that the Soviets considered this a tool to be used in propaganda harmful to the United States.

4. The Soviet decision to set up a rocket range target area in the Central Pacific is one of the most dramatic and subtle moves the Soviets have made in missile diplomacy. Allen W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency Chief, said in a speech this week that Soviet rocket testing in the past has been conducted with the greatest possible secrecy but now: "they wish to call attention to the strength of their sinews."

3-Unit Mental Hospital Cost Tops Central Estimate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It won't be possible to build three 500-bed mental hospitals at separate sites for the same amount a centralized 1,500-bed facility in northeast Ohio would cost, the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction warns.

The department originally planned to build a Northeastern Ohio Mental Institution in the Warrensville Heights section of Cleveland. It would have had three 500-bed units, but all would have been at the same site, with central units to provide such services as administration, heat and food.

Plans were changed when Gov. Michael V. DiSalle decided after a look at institutions in eastern states that smaller, decentralized units would do the job better. Administration would be more efficient, DiSalle said, and it would be easier to draw a staff from the local area.

But Dr. Robert A. Haines, director of the mental hygiene-correction department, says the $800,000 appropriated for specifications and land purchase by the last Legislature probably won't be enough now that three sites must be acquired.

What's more, Haines said, with equipment the cost of the project may jump from 15 million dollars to between 23 and 24 million. The administrative, heat, food and other service units now will have to be constructed at each site, Haines pointed out, and each hospital will have to have its own superintendent.

For all that, Haines insists his department has no objection to DiSalle's plan, which is likely to apply to a number of other proposed mental institutions.

"Staffing is the problem," Haines said. "If you can have the staff built up, the size of the hospital doesn't matter."

The problem, he said, is a shortage of trained personnel and keen competition among states for their services.

"At least in a centralized institution you can continue to operate if there is a staff shortage by closing down some sections," Haines said, adding: "We haven't had any experience yet, so we don't know how this will work in smaller units."

State architect Carl E. Bentz, who has been looking over sites in western Cuyahoga County, eastern Lorain County, the Akron area and Warrensville Heights with members of Haines' staff, has completed his initial recommendations.

If the mental hygiene-correction department's top officials concur, Haines will discuss the sites with the governor. If everyone agrees, it will be decided which of the three to build first and what the project will consist of, and architects will draw up the plans.

The first phase of the project, five million dollars' worth of work in the two-year period beginning July 1, 1961, then will be advertised for bid.

What, Bentz was asked, happens if everyone doesn't agree?

"Then," Bentz replied, "we'll go back and look around some more."

A spectator in the courtroom was Porumbanu, who had sent Gamble this message: "Only in love is there truth."

After court proceedings, Porumbanu told newsmen:

"I must comply with much chagrin to the order of the court and I am sure she will comply with the law. But I don't think her inner feelings for me have changed, and my feelings for her will never change. I love her very much."

Justice Gold said Gamble also told him she would comply with an order issued Wednesday in Brooklyn Magistrate's Court ordering her "not to contact Andre Porumbanu in any form or manner." Her family had brought her to that court on a wayward girl charge. A hearing on the charge was set for Feb. 26.

Ashville Woman To Appear On Contempt of Court Count

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court recently ordered Miss Mae Rife, Ashville, to appear before it at 10 a. m. February 6.

Miss Rife has been ordered to appear to show cause why the court shouldn't sentence her for contempt of court.

According to County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis, the Ohio Attorney General's office requested his office to subpoena Miss Rife.

It is reported that the State Tax

Commissioner ordered Miss Rife to appear with her bookkeeping records for investigation. A summons was delivered her by the County Sheriff, but she ignored the summons and did not appear.

According to the Tax Commission, AFTER SEVERAL letters were written her, requesting she make an appearance, the Tax Commissioner asked the Attorney General to take action.

According to state statute, persons ignoring summons from the Tax Commission, can be proceeded against upon request of the Tax Commission to the Attorney General or the prosecutor of the county in which that person resides. In this case, the Attorney General's office asked Prosecutor Davis to proceed against Miss Rife.
